COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
Subcommission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities
Forty-seventh session
Item 10 (c) of the provisional agenda

THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF DETAINEES

APPLICATION OF INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS CONCERNING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF DETAINED JUVENILES

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In its resolution 1993/27 of 25 August 1993, the Subcommission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities requested the Secretary-General to report on the results of the expert group meeting on children and juveniles in detention, to be organized by the Centre for Human Rights with the cooperation of the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch and the United Nations Children's Fund.

2. The Commission on Human Rights, at its fifty-first session, in its resolution 1995/41, took note with appreciation of the recommendations of the meeting held at Vienna from 30 October to 4 November 1994, with the cooperation of the Government of Austria. The Commission invited Governments to provide training in human rights and juvenile justice to all judges, lawyers, prosecutors, social workers and other professionals concerned with juvenile justice, including police and immigration officers.

3. In pursuance of Subcommission resolution 1993/27, the Secretary-General is transmitting to the Subcommission his report on the expert group meeting on children and juveniles in detention: application of human rights standards (E/CN.4/1995/100).
